Powerboat or Sailboat....Large or Small....

No matter what your problem, if you have a GRP, Wood or Steel vessel, and have Mechanical / Electrical / Electronic requirements, we can help. We have 45 years experience and regularly sail deep-sea ourselves. We have never suffered a breakdown, so know EXACTLY what is required for your continued trouble free cruising. By not "cutting corners" we are committed to YOUR safety and peace of mind. We guarantee our work and have a worldwide network of quality suppliers to ensure best prices for the approved top quality parts and materials we use. Regular maintenance contracts for any vessel are also available on request.
